DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, who certified his decision to the Associate Commissioner, Examinations, for review. The director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed this application for adjustment of status to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966. This Act provides for the adjustment of status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959, and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The director determined that the applicant failed to submit additional evidence as had been requested. The director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application.

The applicant has provided no statement or additional evidence on notice of certification.

The record shows that the applicant was requested on February 10, 1999, and again on March 2, 1999 to submit a medical examination report (Form I-693). He was also requested on July 7, 1999, and again on August 13, 1999 to submit a letter of clearance from the police department or sheriff's office from every city in the United States where he has resided since his entry into the United States.

The notices were sent to the applicant at the address provided by the applicant and contained in the record of proceeding. The notices, however, were returned to the Service as undeliverable. Again on notice of certification, the applicant was extended an opportunity to provide the required documents. The record reflects that the documents have not been supplied.

Pursuant to section 291 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he is eligible for adjustment of status. He has failed to meet that burden. Therefore, the decision of the director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The director's decision is affirmed.
