FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Terrence M. O'Reilly, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be sustained.

The petitioner is a motel firm which seeks to employ the beneficiaries as housekeepers and cleaners for a period of 10 months. The certifying officer of the Department of Labor declined to issue a labor certification because he determined that the petitioner had not established that his need for the beneficiaries is temporary. The director concurred in this determination and denied the petition.

On appeal, the petitioner argues that its need is temporary because the beneficiaries services are only required during a 10-month period.

8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(A) requires that a petition for temporary employment in the United States be accompanied by a temporary labor certification from the Department of Labor, or notice detailing the reasons why such certification cannot be made. 8 C.F.R. 214.2(h)(6)(iv)(E) states that a petition not accompanied by a temporary labor certification must be accompanied by countervailing evidence from the petitioner that addresses the reasons why the Secretary of Labor could not grant a labor certification.

The director determined that the petitioner had not submitted sufficient countervailing evidence to show that the need for the beneficiaries is seasonal. The petitioner has now provided a projection of occupancy for the year 2000 and evidence as to how this projection was determined. The petitioner also submitted evidence of its inability to recruit needed personnel.

After review of record, it is concluded that the countervailing evidence submitted by the director is sufficient to establish that the need for the beneficiaries is temporary, the employment policies of the Department of Labor have been observed, and the positions offered are temporary. Accordingly, the appeal will be sustained and the petition will be approved.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained. The director's decision is withdrawn and the petition is approved.
