FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER,
EXAMINATIONS

Terrence M. O'Reilly, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, New York, New York, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant was born on August 13, 1979 in the Dominican Republic. The applicant's father, [REDACTED] was born in the Dominican Republic in 1955 and never claimed to be a United States citizen. The applicant's mother, [REDACTED], was born in the Dominican Republic and became a naturalized U.S. citizen on May 9, 1984. The applicant's parents married each other on February 19, 1977. The applicant was lawfully admitted for permanent residence on October 25, 1979. The applicant is seeking a certificate of citizenship under § 322 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1433.

The district director reviewed the record and concluded that the applicant was over the age of 18 years at the time of the interview and only one parent was a U.S. citizen. The district director denied the application accordingly.

On appeal, the applicant's mother states that her son fulfilled the conditions and she sees no reason why the application was denied.

Section 322 CHILD BORN OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES; APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS

(a) APPLICATION OF CITIZEN PARENTS: REQUIREMENTS. -A parent who is a citizen of the United States may apply to the Attorney General for a certificate of citizenship on behalf of a child born outside the United States. The Attorney General shall issue such a certificate of citizenship upon proof to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that the following conditions have been fulfilled:

(1) At least one parent is a citizen of the United States, whether by birth or naturalization.

(2) The child is physically present in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission.

(3) The child is under the age of 18 years and in the legal custody of the citizen parent.

(4) If the citizen parent is an adoptive parent of the child, the child was adopted by the citizen parent before the child reached the age of 16 years and the child meets the requirements for being a child under subparagraph (E) or (F) of § 101(b)(1).

(5) If the citizen parent has not been physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than 5 years, at least 2 of which were after attaining the age of 14 years-

(A) The child is residing permanently in the United States with the citizen parent, pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence, or

(B) A citizen parent of the citizen parent has been physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than 5 years, at least 2 of which were after attaining the age of 14 years.

(b) ATTAINMENT OF CITIZENSHIP STATUS; RECEIPT OF CERTIFICATE. - Upon approval of the application (which may be filed abroad) and, except as provided in the last sentence of § 337(a), upon taking and subscribing before an officer of the Service within the United States to the oath of allegiance required by this Act of an applicant for naturalization, the child shall become a citizen of the United States and shall be furnished by the Attorney General with a certificate of citizenship.

8 C.F.R. 322.2(a) provides that to be eligible for naturalization under § 322 of the Act, a child on whose behalf an application for naturalization has been filed by a parent who is, at the time of filing, a citizen of the United States, must:

(1) Be unmarried and under 18 years of age, both at the time of application and at the time of admission to citizenship;

(2) Be physically present in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission, and in the legal custody of the applying citizen parent;

(3) Be a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and favorably disposed toward the good order and happiness of the United States; a child under the age of 14 will generally be presumed to satisfy this requirement;

(4) Comply with other requirements for naturalization as provided in the Act....(Emphasis supplied.)

The record reflects that the applicant was born to a lawful permanent resident mother during a temporary absence abroad. The applicant's mother has satisfied the physical presence requirements. However, although the application was filed when the applicant was 16 years and 1 month old, he was 18 years and 4 months old at the time of the interview and ineligible for the benefit.

8 C.F.R. 341.2(c) provides that the burden of proof shall be on the claimant to establish the claimed citizenship by a preponderance of the evidence. The applicant has failed to establish that her father meets the physical presence requirements of § 322 of the Act, and the appeal will be dismissed on other grounds.

This decision is without prejudice to the applicant's seeking U.S. citizenship through normal naturalization procedures by filing an Application for Naturalization on Form N-400 with a Service office having jurisdiction over his residence.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
