DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner seeks classification as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(1)(A), as an alien of extraordinary ability in the sciences. The director determined the petitioner had not established the sustained national or international acclaim necessary to qualify for classification as an alien of extraordinary ability.

Review of Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) records indicates that, subsequent to the filing of the instant petition, a U.S. employer filed another Form I-140 petition seeking a different immigrant classification on the alien's behalf. CIS records further indicate that this subsequent petition was approved several months before the present petition was denied. The alien subsequently filed a Form I-485 Application to Adjust Status, receipt number LIN 01 169 55327. CIS records also show that the alien adjusted to permanent resident status on March 17, 2004. Because the alien is now a lawful permanent resident, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the alien's lawful permanent resident status.
