ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The nonimmigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner imports, exports and wholesales clothing, jewelry and beverages. It seeks to continue to employ the beneficiary temporarily in the United States as its president and general manager. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary would be employed in the United States in a managerial or executive capacity.

On appeal, counsel states that the director failed to adequately account for obstacles faced during the start-up phase of the petitioner's operations resultant from the tragic events of September 11, 2002. Counsel further states that the record establishes that the beneficiary has been and would be performing executive tasks.

Counsel indicated that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted in support of the appeal on or before April 24, 2002. To date, no brief or additional evidence has been received.

As no additional information has been provided in support of the appeal, the record must be considered complete.

The regulations at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) state in part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

As the petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

In visa petition proceedings, the burden of proving eligibility for the benefit sought rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
