Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The delivery bond in this matter was declared breached by the District Director, Harlingen, Texas, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely.

The record indicates that on August 4, 2000, the obligor posted a $2,500 bond conditioned for the delivery of the above referenced alien. A Notice to Deliver Alien (Form I-340) dated April 4, 2001, was sent to the obligor via certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice demanded the bonded alien's surrender to the Immigration and Naturalization Service (the Service) at 10:00 a.m. on May 4, 2001, at [REDACTED]. The obligor failed to present the alien, and the alien failed to appear as required. On May 10, 2001, the district director informed the obligor that the delivery bond had been breached.

8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B) states:

Untimely appeal--(1) Rejection without refund of filing fee. An appeal which is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee the Service has accepted will not be refunded.

Untimely appeal--(2) Untimely appeal treated as motion. If an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen as described in section 103.5(a)(2) of this part or a motion to reconsider as described in section 103.5(a)(3) of this part, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the alien surrendered on May 10, 2002 at the Los Angeles District Office. Counsel requests that a Form I-391 be issued. The alien's surrender for removal does not change the fact that a breach occurred when the obligor failed to deliver the alien on May 4, 2001. As such, counsel's statement, on appeal, does not meet the requirements of a motion.

Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. 103.5a(b).

The decision clearly advised the obligor that any appeal must be filed within thirty days. Coupled with three days for mailing the appeal, in this case, should have been filed on or before June 12, 2001. The appeal was dated by counsel on July 23, 2002, and received by the Service on July 25, 2002.

Based upon the obligor's failure to file a timely appeal, the appeal will be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
