NATURALIZATION FOR LAWFUL PERMANENT RESIDENTS LIVING AND WORKING IN MULTIPLE STATES

WHY NATURALIZE AND BECOME A U.S. CITIZEN?

Obtaining U.S. citizenship through naturalization offers many benefits and important responsibilities. For example, only U.S. citizens can vote in federal elections and serve on a jury. As a U.S. citizen, you can get priority for sponsoring certain family members to come to the United States. You can also apply for certain federal jobs and become eligible for certain federal benefits, grants, and scholarships. Finally, if your children are under 18 years of age and are lawful permanent residents when you naturalize, they may automatically acquire citizenship.

WHAT ARE THE GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR NATURALIZATION TO BECOME A U.S. CITIZEN?

To be eligible for naturalization based on being a lawful permanent resident for at least 5 years, you must:

- Be at least 18 years of age when you submit Form N-400, Application for Naturalization (uscis.gov/n-400);
- Show you have been a lawfully admitted permanent resident of the United States for at least 5 years;
- Demonstrate continuous residence in the United States for at least 5 years immediately before the date you file Form N-400 and up to the time of naturalization;
- Show you have been physically present in the United States for at least 30 months out of the 5 years immediately before the date you file Form N-400;
- Show you have lived for at least 3 months in a state or USCIS district having jurisdiction over your place of residence. (If you are a student and are financially dependent on your parents, you may apply for naturalization where you go to school or where your family lives.);
- Show that you are a person of good moral character;
- Be able to read, write, and speak basic English;
- Have knowledge and understanding of the fundamentals of the history, and of the principles and form of government of the United States (also known as civics);
- Demonstrate an attachment to the principles and ideals of the U.S. Constitution; and
- Take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States.

DO I QUALIFY FOR NATURALIZATION IF I RESIDE IN MULTIPLE STATES?

Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, requests basic biographic information about your current and former residences in the United States. If you reside in multiple states, we will determine your place of residence based on where you file and have filed your federal income tax returns. You do not need to establish that you have resided at one address for the entire 5-year period. However, you do need to establish that you have resided in the same U.S. state or USCIS jurisdiction for at least 3 months when you file your application. If you move after you file your application, change your address through your USCIS online account using the USCIS Online Change of Address System (uscis.gov/addresschange) or by calling the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283 (TTY 800-767-1833) Monday to Friday, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eastern. You must report a change of address within 10 days of moving within the United States or its territories. Changing your address with the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) will not change your address with USCIS, so please update your information with both USCIS and USPS.

WHAT SHOULD I DO NEXT TO APPLY FOR NATURALIZATION TO BECOME A U.S. CITIZEN?

Apply for U.S. citizenship by submitting Form N-400, Application for Naturalization (uscis.gov/n-400). You can file this form online. There are exceptions and modifications to the naturalization requirements that are available to those who qualify. We also provide accommodations for people with disabilities. For more information on exceptions, modifications and accommodation, see our Exceptions and Accommodations webpage (uscis.gov/citizenship/exceptions-and-accommodations).

You can use the USCIS Naturalization Eligibility Tool to quickly determine whether you may be eligible to apply for naturalization (uscis.gov/citizenship-resource-center/learn-about-citizenship/naturalization-eligibility).

Fees: There is a fee for Form N-400. However, if you cannot afford the naturalization fee, then you may be eligible for a fee waiver (uscis.gov/i-912) or fee reduction.

- If you are eligible for a fee waiver, you pay no fee for Form N-400. A fee waiver is available if you can demonstrate that:
 - » You, your spouse, child, or parent (if you are under 21 or disabled) living with you are receiving a means-tested benefit;
 - » Your household income is at or below 150% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines when you file. Check the current Federal Poverty Guidelines for this year at <https://aspe.hhs.gov/topics/poverty-economic-mobility/poverty-guidelines>; or
 - » You are experiencing extreme financial hardship, including hardship from unexpected medical bills or emergencies, that prevents you from paying the filing fee.
- If you are eligible for a fee reduction, you pay about 50% of the Form N-400 fee. A fee reduction is available if your documented annual household income is not more than 400% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines when you file.
