MATTER OF C-M-C-

DATE: JUNE 27, 2016

APPEAL OF TEXAS SERVICE CENTER DECISION

PETITION: FORM I-140, IMMIGRANT PETITION FOR ALIEN WORKER

The Petitioner, a software architect, seeks classification as an individual of “extraordinary ability.” See Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) § 203(b)(1)(A); 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(1)(A). The Director, Texas Service Center, denied the petition. The matter is now before us on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) provides, in pertinent part, that we “shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.” The Notice of Appeal or Motion, Form I-290B, does not contain an explanation of the reasons for appeal. In Part 3 of the Form I-290B, “Information About the Appeal or Motion,” the Petitioner checked the box that reads: “I am filing an appeal to the [Administrative Appeals Office (AAO)]. My brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted to the AAO within 30 calendar days of filing the appeal.” However, as of today’s date, over six months after the Petitioner filed his appeal in December 2015, he has not supplemented the appeal.

In the denial, the Director discussed the evidence in the record and found that the Petitioner did not establish his eligibility as an individual of extraordinary ability. In this case, the Petitioner has not identified an erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in the Director’s decision. The mere filing of a Form I-290B, without specifically identifying an error in the decision, does not trigger an analysis of the criteria or a review of the Director’s decision. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

As the Petitioner has not specifically identified any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact, we must dismiss the appeal.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).
