DATE: MAR. 5, 2018

APPEAL OF CALIFORNIA SERVICE CENTER DECISION

PETITION: FORM I-129F, PETITION FOR ALIEN FIANCÉ(E)

The Petitioner, a U.S. citizen, seeks to classify the Beneficiary as his fiancée. See Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) section 101(a)(15)(K), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K). A U.S. citizen may petition to bring a fiancé(e) (and that person's children) to the United States in K classification for marriage. The U.S. citizen must establish that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the Form I-129F, Petition for Alien Fiancé(e) (fiancé(e) petition), have a bona fide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within 90 days of a beneficiary's admission as a fiancé(e).

The Director of the California Service Center denied the fiancé(e) petition, concluding that the Petitioner did not submit sufficient documentation establishing the Beneficiary's intent to marry him within 90 days of her admission to the United States.

On appeal, the Petitioner submits a statement and additional evidence.

Upon de novo review, we will dismiss the appeal.

I. LAW

Section 214(d)(1) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1184(d)(1), states that a fiancé(e) petition can be approved only if the petitioner establishes that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the fiancé(e) petition, have a bona fide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within a period of 90 days after the beneficiary's arrival.

II. ANALYSIS

The Director issued a request for evidence seeking documentation of the Beneficiary's intent to marry the Petitioner within 90 days of her arrival in the United States. She subsequently denied the fiancé(e) petition because the Petitioner did not provide the requested evidence. On appeal, the Petitioner submits a letter discussing his relationship with the Beneficiary, as well as a statement of his intent to marry her within 90 days of her arrival in the United States. The record, however, does not include a similar statement from the Beneficiary or other evidence sufficiently demonstrating her intent to marry the Petitioner within 90 days of her entry into this country.

III. CONCLUSION

The Petitioner has not provided sufficient evidence of the Beneficiary's intent to marry him within 90 days of her admission to the United States.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
