MATTER OF T-P-

DATE: MAR. 26, 2018

APPEAL OF CALIFORNIA SERVICE CENTER DECISION

PETITION: FORM I-129F, PETITION FOR ALIEN FIANCÉ(E)

The Petitioner, a U.S. citizen, seeks the Beneficiary's admission to the United States under the fiancé(e) visa classification. See Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) section 101(a)(15)(K)(i), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K)(i) (the "K-1" visa classification). A U.S. citizen may petition to bring a fiancé to the United States in K-1 status for marriage. The petitioner must establish, among other things, that the parties have previously met within two years before the date of filing the petition, have a bona fide intention to marry, and are willing and legally able to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within 90 days of the fiancée's admission. Section 214(d)(1) of the Act.

The Director of the California Service Center denied the Form I-129F, Petition for Alien Fiancé(e) (fiancé(e) petition), concluding that the Petitioner did not submit Form G-325A, Biographic Information, for the Beneficiary.¹

On appeal, the Petitioner provides a properly completed Form G-325A for the Beneficiary. As the Petitioner has met the statutory and regulatory requirements for classifying the Beneficiary as a K nonimmigrant, the approval of the fiancé(e) petition is warranted.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained.

¹ We note that the instructions to the fiancé(e) petition beginning on April 10, 2017, no longer require submission of Form G-325A, as this form now captures most of the data collected on the Form G-325A. However, the Petitioner filed a previous version of the fiancé(e) petition that did not capture all relevant biographic information. Therefore, the instructions to that form, used in the instant case, required petitioners to file accompanying Forms G-325A for both parties.
