APPEAL OF CALIFORNIA SERVICE CENTER DECISION

PETITION: FORM I-129F, PETITION FOR ALIEN FIANCÉ(E)

The Petitioner, a U.S. citizen, seeks to classify the Beneficiary as her fiancé. See Immigration and Nationality Act section 101(a)(15)(K), 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(K). A U.S. citizen may petition to bring a fiancé(e) (and that person's children) to the United States in K classification for marriage. The U.S. citizen must establish that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the Form I-129F, Petition for Alien Fiancé(e) (fiancé(e) petition), have a bona fide intention to marry, and are legally able and actually willing to conclude a valid marriage in the United States within 90 days of a beneficiary's admission as a fiancé(e).

The Director of the California Service Center denied the fiancé(e) petition, concluding that the Petitioner did not submit sufficient documentation of an in-person meeting with the Beneficiary during the two-year period prior to filing the petition.

On appeal, the Petitioner submits copies of airline travel itineraries and a statement indicating the dates of their meetings in the United States and Canada. The record also includes photographs of the Petitioner and Beneficiary together. Accordingly, the evidence is sufficient to show that the parties have previously met in person within two years before the date of filing the fiancé(e) petition. As the Petitioner has met the statutory and regulatory requirements for classifying the Beneficiary as her fiancé, the approval of the petition is warranted.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained.
